Plot:

This companion training manual to Real-Life Discipleship provides unique guidance and insight to pastors, church leaders, and their disciples as they work to create an effective discipleship program. With a thorough, results-oriented process that can be applied in other contexts and cultures, this manual explains the necessary components of disciple-making so that every church member can play a part in reaching others for Christ. A great leader's resource, it shows you how to cultivate new leaders for the future and equip them to make disciples.

Discover a new vision for your small-group ministry by thinking about how you make disciples. With a thorough, results-oriented process from one of America's fastest-growing churches, this training manual explains the necessary components of disciple-making so that every church member can play a part in reaching others for Christ. As a companion to Real-Life Discipleship, the manual will help small-group leaders develop the heart of a discipler by learning what a disciple is, how disciples grow, and how to be an intentional leader.

Interactive learning format includes:
- Activities and questions that teach an effective, Christlike approach to discipleship
- Training on how to identify, recruit, and develop gifted leaders from within your church fellowship
- An explanation of the role of personal relationships in making disciples

Do as Jesus did: Make disciples who go out and make disciples, who go out and make disciples.
